"Stayaway Stars"

Yeah, you're upset
So am I, so am I
I sometimes forget just how seldom you cry
And thus how much I hate it when you do

Yeah, you're a mess, more or less
So am I
I sometimes forget there are stars in the sky
- So nonchalant, though thoroughly thought through

Say you're OK
And I'll say "so am I"
And we'll call it a day
So goodnight, so goodbye
It's dark enough to disappear into

What sorry sights we sometimes are
These sameshit nights under stayaway stars
These sameshit nights in the saddest bars
The city lights and the stayaway stars
