Hey Mike, you busy?
All this sunshine's making me dizzy
Went outside, all my clothes dried
And if I'm babbling, please forgive me
But it's the first hint of sunshine
For a week or so, I'd say
And I'm keeping well, I'm in good health
But I sneeze when I look into the sun today

There's my bike looking dusty
The spokes are broken and rusty
But I'm happy to walk
I'm happy with anything today
'Cause I'm out in the sunshine
While my friend's at home asleep
I guess that's just the downside
To the money he makes and the hours he keeps

And I say hey, it's a beautiful day
And I'm starting to feel a lot better
So wake up, wake up
It's T-shirt weather

Ba-ba-ba how could things be better?
This afternoon in the pub I met her
Maggie May on the juke-box
Hey, things are okay
"Just two things" she tells me,
"If you want to keep things friendly - no beer for me, no peanuts, and I'll be happyâ€¦ oh, and no football, well I guess that makes three"

It's a beautiful day
And I'm starting to feel a lot better
So wake up, wake up
It's T-shirt weather
It's T-shirt weather
