

Jack Davis and Crossbite

"Reach"

Visit "Reach" on MotoLyrics.com

Well I was going crazy but I'll come around I'll come around, before it's too late you know
I was losing something but I'll come around,
I'll come around before I'm drowned

My hand reaches up high Above muddy water grabs hold, pulls and then I Come following after
I'm watching the sun rise
And ending the long night
Awake for the first time
Fog lifting from my eye

I've been in a nightmare but I'm coming 'round
I'm coming 'round, don't care anymore
The chains are getting rusty 'cause I'm coming 'round
I'm coming 'round, there's a new sound

I'm feeling my heart beat
And hearing my breath sigh
Sleepwalkers surround me, not knowing they're alive
I'm walking through the crowd of faces looking down
I start singing out loud, while they cling to their shrouds

I found the edge so I'm coming 'round,
I'm coming 'round, I'll cling to the ground
And sleep out in the forest 'cause I've come around
I've come around, we've all been here before
The paths meet in the middle and I've come around
I've come around, not alone anymore
Cold rain is falling on me 'cause I've come around
I've come around
I've come around

