Don't tempt me hon, I been down that road before
No, don't tempt me hon, I been down that road before I'm addicted to you, you keep me coming back for more

Every time we break up, I come running back again
Every time we break up, I come running back again
You've had a hold on me since long before I don't know when

Some habits are easy, others are so hard to break
Some habits are easy, others are so hard to break
And I'm a you a holic, a hopeless case, yours to take

That's it, I've had it, I ain't coming 'round no more
That's it, I've had it, I ain't coming 'round no more Except I see your bedroom light on and the key still in your door
