Are you listening, to anything i say?
I am talking between when you looking away, and when i wonder what you're thinkin' when you're starin' into space, oh
I tell you to turn around and take a look at yourself, you're always watching me to see if your head should hang down, woah woah

Are you with me, are anything at all?
Girl you're not all alone, no it's not all a dream
You know you have to reach inside, and try to believe, woah oh

I wonder why I care, why I go threw it all I know I love you and I don't want to let it all fall, woah
oh

Try not to save me, just come home, please come home
home
Try not to save me, try not to save me, try not to care
Try not to save me, try not to save me, try not to care

all i ever wanted was to care
all i ever wanted was to care
try not to save me, try not to save me, try not to care.
