We could be laying on this big old couch,
Watching a movie on TV.
Open some wine instead of going out
It'd all be about you and me
You know how I love those roses and candle lights,
It sounds like a perfect plan for tomorrow night,
But baby, not tonight!

[Chorus:]

We're gonna paint it up
We're gonna burn it down
We're gonna party like we own this town!
We'll make my momma nervous,
We'll make your daddy proud,
We'll give the world
Something good they can talk about.
Let's take a little love,
Throw in some crazy stuff,
We'll finally mix it up,
And now we're getting serious!

Nothing like a big full moon on Friday night,
Makes you wanna stay out all night long
My cherry red lipstick says hold on tight
Could be a while tryin' (?)
When you put on a black t-shirt and those faded jeans
You're looking like you could be ready for anything,
Baby, I know what it means!

[Chorus (x2)]

We're gonna paint it up
We're gonna burn it down
We're gonna party like we own this town!
We'll make my momma nervous,
We'll make your daddy proud,
We'll give the world
Something good they can talk about.
Let's take a little love,
Throw in some crazy stuff,
We'll finally mix it up,
And now we're getting serious!

Now we're getting serious!
Now we're getting serious!
