She gets the kids up and off to school
Work's never done till the day is through Same old routine over and over again

There's a lot of this world she's never seen
She married young the boy of her dreams
And to this day that's something she wouldn't change
But she longs for the way he used to whisper her name

Chorus:

She wants to be wanted
She knows that she's needed
She wants moonlight and romance
Soft music and a slow dance
She wants him to hold her
Like he's never touched her
That's how love began
She wants to be wanted again

It's Friday night and he's on his way home
She's made plans for them to be alone
Took the kids to her mama's they're gonna spend the night
And she's hoping he'll notice how her new dress
Fits her just right

Chorus

That's how love began
She wants to be wanted again
