Everything familiar feels so new to me
I might look the same but I'm not who I used to be
The clocks still chimes, the world still turns
I do know how I live this life here without you
Oh, but someday soon

Love is gonna build a bridge from me to you
Faith is gonna find a way to pull me through
And we will be together once again someday soon

Only God knows why it has to be this way
There's no easy answers, there's no words to say
The light that guides me through the dark
Is knowing that these arms will hold you
Strong and true, baby, someday soon

And love is gonna build a bridge from me to you
And faith is gonna find a way to pull me through, ohh

Love is gonna build a bridge from me to you
And faith is gonna find a way to pull me through
And we will be together once again someday soon

We will be together, we will be together
We will be together someday soon
We will be together, we will be together
We will be together someday soon
