Play the game of indecision, come what may, she knows it isn't just His voice on the line, one final time she hears thunder Precious lies when she played her part Still she tries, because hope dies hard With broken wings, she can feel the sting like a backhand over the telephone In her eyes, shimmers twilight, drivin' hard, it gives up the fight
And she fights it back, knowing that the dam could break wide open Chorus:
Burning down inside, nobody wants to be lonely Burning down inside, the harder they come, the harder
she falls
To her face, I show my arm, I walk away, before I do more harm
And with the damage done, she won't know where to run or who to run to Chorus
Turnin' like a spinning wheel, dancin' on her head Tries so hard to walk away, she falls in love instead (Solo)
My head says, we should always go our own ways, never get too close When she can hear my heart, if she comes apart, I'll be waiting Chorus repeats 2x
Burning down inside - the harder she falls - burning down inside
Burning down inside, the harder they come, the harder
she falls
Burning down inside, burning down inside
Burning down inside, the harder they come, the harder
she falls
(repeats out)
