What is this thing pullin' at my heart, how does she keep from fallin' apart
What do we have when things get rough, I heard the word, it's nothing but love Yeah!
How can a man bear the weight of the world
What can he do to hold on to you, girl
What power keeps him from cryin' "enough!"
I heard the word, it's nothing but love
It ain't nothing but love, that's what I'm thinkin' of
It ain't nothing but love, burnin' in my blood, whoah,
whoah
What is the thunder that can tear down the walls
What is the hammer that can forge us all
What secret made me kill my Lord above
He had the answer, nothing but love
It ain't nothing but love, that's what I'm thinkin' of
It ain't nothing but love, drownin' in the blood, whoah, whoah, whoah, whoah
Sparkle in your eyes, tremble in your lips
Electric in your touch, losing on my grip Everything you are, all that I can be
As I am to you, so you are to me
What is this thing pullin' at my heart, how does she
keep from fallin' apart
(Solo)
It ain't nothing but love, that's what I'm thinkin' of
It ain't nothing but love, burnin' in my blood, whoah,
whoah
It ain't nothing but love, that's what I'm thinkin' of
It ain't nothing but love, drownin' in the blood
I said, whoah, whoah, whoah, whoah, whoah
