"Sail Away"

I was lookin' out on dry land, no intentions, I didn't have no plans

That's when I knew, no doubt, I had hit bottom and I was getting out

No more people to hold me down, fight the ghost in my hometown

All the walls will crumble down

So I called up my man Michael, dropped everything and oh

We don't need directions, to do what we need done

And we learn to travel lightly, we learn to travel strong

If we never lost the fire, we'd win before too long

No you don't look back and you can't delay, you've got to sail away

Chorus:

Sail away, we may not ever be coming back this way

Sail away, another place to be, another day

Sail away, sail away

And we're too controlled for laughing, whereas nothing could go wrong

When we met with two more strangers that were friends before too long

And we switched them together, could take on the whole world

No regrets, no longing, got things the way they were

No you don't look back and you can't delay, got to sail away

chorus

(Solo)

home town

All the walls will crumble down

And sail away, we may not ever be coming back this way

Sail away, another place to be, another day

Sail away, another place to be, another day

You got to sail away, come on and sail away

Sailin' yeah, you've got to sail away, sailin' yeah, come on and sail away

Sailin' yeah, come on and sail away, sailin' yeah, sailin', sail away...
