[Verse 1] As time keeps ticking I keep thinking Alcoholics keep drinking, cocaine addicts keep sniffing Paraplegics keep sitting We keep committing, liars keep bullshitting Wires keep singing till the sun ringing interrupts Perhaps something corrupts Your company goes bankrupt, cars are banked up You're now in handcuffs pleading your innocence Remain persistent, the future is not too distant Although it's forever existing, someone played with the pistons Fucking up your engine, cheating was tempting I'm always rendering cause nothing goes perfectly to plan Regrets of the grains of sand being wasted Some things once broken, you just can't replace it Positivity is so much better when tasted So taste it, don't waste it [Chorus] {X2} My prerogative is to remain positive I gotta live, gotta give, gotta get, gonna sweat Wanna step? I'm on the left I'm gonna do my best to progress, nothing short of, nothing less [Verse 2] Hot to trot, I take a partner for the progressive waltz Some things you never know whether true or false But don't let that bring you to a halt A quick jolt, then left one, two Right and we pursue, how do you do? Don't let the passing flu limit you It's all in the mind, find your body to be immune Exit the tomb, avoid being marooned In the world of the assumed Soon you'll be doomed if you don't get in tune You'll corrode like sand dunes Instead bloom like a daisy, step from the shady Hazy, I'm a Modern Man like Lazy Since the days of being babies We need to turn the maybes into the definite yes Regret step with finesse Obsess over things that you'd like And as my initial fright enter the arena With swift flight, the stage is alight Act upon the likes tonight Turn all those wrongs into the rights And it'll be ok, and it'll be alright, right? [Chorus] [Verse 3] I'm becoming more and more advanced The lyrical skills promoted enhanced We all grow just like plants And never stay in the exact same stance We need to dance with destiny Face the progressions standing next to me I do it leisurely and move forward pleasantly The necessity is to think positively And with that migrate North, choose your course Apply the required force, ride life like a horse Yesterday's nobody can become superstar rhyme sayer An average villager can become the town's dragon slayer Layer upon layer, shit gets more flavour We rise up when we say fuck those traitors We're fresh now and we'll be even fresher later As we cater for the underground banquets You need to let go of the security blanket Thank us and proceed March forth and believe Step forth and relieve Now of course you must breathe
