[Muph] I never used to have a temper, now it gets flared I never knew fear but now I'm shit scared Used to have an undercut, now I barely have any hair Find it hard to give a fuck when I used to care There is so much change Seems strange when strange becomes plain And even stranger when the stranger becomes known by their first name Hurt and pain coincide with happiness and gain If the ball and chain holds you back from your aims It's time for a satisfied change [BVA] Take a second, reconsider bout decisions with it Sometimes it's all that's remembered Hey wait a second, I won't be cornered I'll make me sweat, this ain't a sauna Sorry I did not know this was your moment Was slightly more suspicious A dead ringer schooled a little cinder Vicious tongues and lips form sentences to play Endless games of twister with Again when I thread it and defend it Nah I don't know why I even mentioned it They can run for now, but later we can draw at high noon Ten paces, and run rings around 'em [Chorus: BVA] As time flies, as it does fall and rise Pride itself, another lie won't help You got decisions to make in the wake of yourself You got decisions to make in the wake of yourself [Muph] Well I caught the wind, took off with a gust I fought the sins now evil plagues my nuts Forced from thin now check out this gut The next to win but no need for a fuss Put on my socks, lace up my shoes Clean my teeth, now I'm watching the news Sit on my arse, use a cushion or two Have a shower before a night on the booze Learn the basics before I choose to use Clear my head so it's a little less confused Procrastinate a little before I do a doo Introduce myself then I can claim I met you Add members to the group before they become a crew Find the facts before I state what I knew Try to understand or ignore your views Abuse privileges, I'm seeing ugly images Constrict or eat shit with a limitless attitude Stick with it or continue to cruise Fuse together or separate You've got decisions to make in the wake of yourself [BVA] My thoughts are looking at the horizon Surprising themselves with the new and current busted bubbles Travelling the calm water, unpredicted prey Waylay for a later day, expired Cause too much talk made those ideas tired Spontaneous passages inspired me to light fires In landscapes with no oxygen I fired by coasting to the new and improved neutral Undiluted potent fluids, these words of fire resistance Mood's manoeuvres for you to groove to And leave the usual primitive, limited coincidences For instance to ever feel that in an instance it could be over Is this the end? Hate goodbyes Sunsets forming allies, tie knots with loose ties [Chorus: BVA] {X3} {*Muph begins to overlap the first four bars of his second verse quietly towards the end of the second chorus repeat*}
