* Good Vibes (Remix) has the same lyrics [Muph] And I can smell clearly Well I can smell clearly now Well I can smell clearly now the shit is gone And I can life my weight nearly now that I'm feeling strong I'm touching the ceiling now that my arms are long Feels like nothing I want belongs out of my reach I'm on the beach avoiding the syringes I'm at the pub talking to the bingers And I can feel my fingers becoming a little bit numb After the last one said just to pull out my thumb Someone became a lump sum, this one son's life But I was wearing the disguise, tryna improvise Then I realised and put away the actor Buried the fake chump with a tractor Grabbed the protractor and matched up the fine lines Wrote down the guidelines to make the most of my timeline On the sideline my mind slips But it's all cool cause I can longer smell the shit No matter how hard I whiff I'll take guard and hold a firm grip I'll twist through the turns, I'll flip when I'm concerned And when I'm down I'll yearn for the heart to burn So I know it's still there [Nick Sweepah] Yeah, let the beat relax you like an open fire And chill with friends and fam you respect and admire Quit tryna find the perfect anything Contradiction yeah, but from the past I've learnt many things Everything's cool, plus this FG beat Would make any tool get out of their seat and act a fool Actual events from the past are brought to back to mind All that was fine from that time comes in the form of rhyme Like one night at Revolver I dissolved a potential situation of nervousness By perving with Murs at chicks outside Obese So the performance later on was a natural release Talking shit with a hero of yours, that's a good vibe As good as the first time you saw Hilltop Hoods live We should thrive on these moments but the human condition is hopeless Focus on just what's in front of you Drink with my mate Gram, wait man I'll grab another brew And chill with the crew, just got to call my bro Shwiss It'll be the kind of night that we won't wanna miss A good vibe, one you don't wanna miss! [Mu] It's love, lust, sex and beer [NS] Never mind what you thought, you should be doing here [Mu] It's years and perhaps beers to keep your conscious clear [NS] It's your mates rocking round to shout the good gear [Mu] It's passion, action and those joyful tears [NS] Getting pissed and saying "You're the best man, cheers" [Mu] It's bouncing tits, undone zips and juicy wrists [NS] Hearing this song when your home channel's to your ear [Mu] It's broken fears holding it dear so near [NS] Diving deep when the water is just clean and clear [Mu] It's staying up late to collaborate with your peers [NS] It's Sweepah and Muphin up on stage, hell yeah!
