[Nick Sweepah] Such a spark, yeah and all that Great expectations and had to fall flat Like what this was written on, didn't expect to get shitted on But you gotta sigh, shrug and keep moving on Quitting on Sweep shows your character, not deep And snares from Mobb Deep couldn't be this harsh But fuck it, it's my way of wading through the marsh Been a little while between drinks so pass the next one, I'm parched [Muph] And when push comes to shove It feels like a kiss becomes a hug But if it's just not real love You may slip from that rug boy You can't force it, must take the crush and forfeit Now you're just friends and it feels awkward Holding your head low, along with your esteeming ego Feeling morbid, everything seems slow Got to sort it off the pitch to sit In the ditch the initial hitch was a risk And you knew that, wondering why you continue to do that {Do what?} Let the disappointments affect you Damn, that shit can really get you down It can get you down boy It can get you down, it can get you down [Chorus] {X2} Let down! That shit can break, shift and shake Like tectonic plates it irritates But we eliminate, throw away And elevate for goodness sake [Nick Sweepah] Now we had great plans for the title The show, mixtapes, promotion, CDs and vinyl Mixing one element that's vital, enthusiasm Thought you wanted to jump the chasm and meet under the steps we planned it And then we canned him almost overnight Seeing if you turn up, still the show was alright But what about the meeting times, the mad drinking and speaking times Shouldn't have been relying on you for all those beats and rhymes [Muph] Make a little more effort Captivate and leave 'em breathless, work hard and perfect it Should never have neglected the ones who were affected By the words I projected By the passion I injected, now my objective is to be tight, make shit just right Be selective before I let it out of the tavern I've been let down by so many who've lost that passion Used to crash and burn with sounds you've never heard But when she gets heard, the turd loosens But I won't let the words of disappointment leave me in ruins I'm chewing on the past, spitting out the present Got to ignore the let downs so my life can be pleasant Chewing on the past, spitting out the present Ignore the let downs so my life can be pleasant Oh so pleasant [Chorus] {X2}
