No one knows where we're going
No one knows where we've been Strangers follow us dangers fall on us
Life play tricks and they're mean
Only one thing can save us
Only one thing will do
Stand up nice and straight Don't capitulate
Courage lives and it's you
Catch a tail by the tiger
Take the horns by the bull
A bird in need is a friend indeed
So pull the eyes over the wool
"Uh, Gobo I think you got it backwards. The saying is that you gotta catch a tiger by the tail "
"Sure, If you want to do it the easy way. On the other hand
if you really want bravery. then you gotta "
Catch a tail by the tiger
Take the horns by the bull
A bird in need is a friend indeed
So pull the eyes over the wool
Steely gaze in the sunrise
Lonesome walk in the dawn
Sometimes lonely but living only for truth
When truth may be gone
Danger lurks at the crossroads
Shadows loom on the wall
Sounds behind us and hounds will find us
And death and taxes and all
So catch a tail by the tiger
Take the horns by the bull
A bird in need is a friend indeed
So pull the eyes over the wool
Catch a tail by the tiger
Take the horns by the bull
A bird in need is a friend indeed
So pull the eyes over the wool
