When you let go of your mothers hand and you sail into the city of illusion
The promised land of the damp and the fire burns in your eyes burns in your stomach from all those lies and you smother your dreams into your nights Yeah yeah yeah
Pre Chorus:
As the fever takes another bite
You ask a stranger for a lite Then he haunts you for the rest of your Your life.
You spend eternity in Damnation Bought a gunpowder kiss at the station
And as you let go of your head
I said you will spend
You will spend Baby you will spend
Your life in Damnation
This is Damnation
Damnation
This is Damnation yeah
Well the saphyr is the appointed coin of love flips into your lap
It's so unfortunate that you can find time to laugh
Pre Chorus:
This is Damnation
This is Damnation yeah
This is Damnation nation nation nation yeah
This is Damnation
This is Damnation
This is Damnation
This is Damnation
yeah yeah yeah
