Sky is my sea, worlds are his dreams.
He's my world he smiles and it shows that inside theres hope.
He'll never run away, no he'll always stay. to mend her broken heart.

And he'll stay just to find what she's lost in her mind.
and he'll say dont you cry. Thats what calleb says.
When the dog runs out and she's talking about her best days,well, he'll be there.They'd,watch the stars, he'd hold her tight.The night would never end.

And he'll stay just to find what she's lost in her mind.and he'll say dont you cry. thats what calleb says, thats all calleb says.
