I heard you want me...
you need some strong words
so come running...
I swear it wont' hurt...
what took you so long
to get it alle done?
and all the lies that you've heard along the way were wrong...

the horizonis gone...
I'm waiting for the day...
when my life and your life align and the history begins...

We're separated...how I hate it you're not with me
...separated...frustrated you're not with me now...

Don't panic...
but if you've been there...
I don't wanna know...
so keep breathing...
I know that you're strong...
you better belive what your heart is telling you...don't run!
