ch-ch-check it out
uh, It's Luvi
What up haters
Oh wait I don't even have any yet It's my first track Shout out to dean on the production
Oh, yeah, uh, okay

It's Luvi coming through your speakers Gotta go to class and listen to my teachers Never catch me without a fresh pair of sneakers
I'm in the game y'all are sitting in the bleachers Uh, killing tracks is my routine
I be so ill there's no vaccine
You could never stop or intervene With my success and I'm on 15
So this be my freshman mixtape but i got so much more to come Imma step ahead of all these rappers Cause you know I'm so damn young It's so hard to pick just one girl
When all these females flocking me
My presence is a present girl
No Christmas tree

haha
oh
yeah
all day all night
yeah
Luvi
haha
yessir

Everybody know it's going down
When I walk into the building
What I do is pretty simple my eyes on the girls Mind on the millions Everyday I'm feeling so good Got no spares baby I'm just chilling
You know that I give it my all in everything I do

Thats why I will win yeah, so they know I'm the dude from Cleveland Dreaming bout that green I'll be making Imma be on the hollywood walk of fame
Like my name kevin bacon
I know in my career Theres gonna be so many records I'll be breaking
And I know i'm it so don't forget This game is mine for the taking

haha
hey its Luvi
you know it's going down yeah haha alright
okay girl haha
yeah

Well I be a rookie to the rap game but I'm spitting like a veteran And I want to let you know that everybody's who I'm better than So get familiar with me cause I'm working trying to make my history
And I know these chicks wanna kiss me Cause I got style, so crispy I'm on the top, you on the bottom
My label know that Luvi's got 'em
All these shows you know I rock em All these haters know I knock em out, cause I do these things that you wouldn't think are possible
I'm breaking through all of these doubters I'm unstoppable

yup
oh, yeah
alright
