I went down to change your mind about nothin', about nothin'
You gave up everything for me
I gave up one too many things
So I went out to find myself but there was nothin'
So I made up something
You took up all my energy
What's mine is yours was not for me

I wanted something out of this
You don't even wear my gifts
This isn't where I live
There's nothing to forgive

You can't stand on your headtrip plan
'Cause it'll be nothin' but an inter ruption
You're making up that happy voice for my protection
To learn some lesson
I'm racing everyone but you
You'd rather let me cheat, 'cause you know I'd lose

I wanted something out of this
You don't even wear my gifts
This isn't where I live
There's nothing to forgive
