two old friends meet again wearing older faces talk about places they've been two old sweethearts fell apart somewhere along the globe how are they to know that someday they'll meet again and never need for more than reminiscing  maybe this time it'll be love and they'll find maybe now they can be more than just friends she's back in his life and it feels so right
maybe this time
love won't end it's the same old feeling back again it's the one that they had back when they were too young to know when love's real but somehow some things never change and even time hasn't cooled the flame it's burning here and brighter than it did before it got another chance and if they take it

she's smiling like she used to smile way back then he's feeling like he used to feel way back when they tried what something can't been waiting for this magic moment
