Starting now I will never see my kitchen counter,
Quite the same babe after we drank the final hour,
I never knew you had it somewhere deep inside you,
Another chance to go out

You whispered to me,
I'd be stupid not to follow,
Where you'd be taken me
Tonight until tommorow

I make predictions from the gifts my dreams have given,
And they never once have they lied...

Chorus:

So, don't you worry who you're kissing on at midnight,
The way I see it, I've got you and I'm both covered,
The worlds the bed,
And you and I instead,
We secretly enjoy our time,
So Kiss On Me tonight

The day awaits too long and when I'll be older,
That holds a time to put an action what I told her,
If I were perfect, then there would be no room for asking
To fill this place by my side

Chorus:

So, don't you worry who you're kissing on at midnight,
The way I see it, I've got you and I'm both covered,
The worlds the bed,
And you and I instead,
We secretly enjoy our time

See, I'm not worried who you're hitting on at midnight,
The way I see it, I've got you and I'm both covered,
The worlds the bed,
And you and I instead,

We secretly enjoy our time,
So kiss on me tonight

Don't worry, It's time to ask yourself,
But, I'll be fine, I'll be fine, I'll be fine

If you wanna, kiss someone else,
I've got time, I've got time,
I'll be fine...

Chorus:

Well, don't you worry who you're kissing on at midnight,
The way I see it, I've got you and I'm both covered,
The worlds the bed,
And you and I instead,
We secretly enjoy our time

(Yeah)

Well, don't you worry who you're kissing on at
midnight,
The way I see it, I've got you and I'm both covered,
The worlds the bed,
And you and I instead,
We secretly enjoy our time

Kiss On Me tonight. (5x)
