Well you walk around town
With your head hung down
And your blue jean coloured eyes
Everybody you run into stops
And they can see right through you
Like you're a spotlight on their life
Baby I know that you're hurting
But that's not how it has to be

I know you didn't wake up
Feeling like this overnight
Overnight
I can't make it all change and go away
Overnight
But I'll try
To take some of the lonely away
If you'll only ask me to stay
Overnight
Overnight

We could hide inside the storm
Where I'll keep you safe and warm
We can make one of our own
All the secrets you confess
Hell, let 'em roll right off your chest sugar
I'll never ever tell a soul
Baby if you're looking for somebody
I can keep you company

I know you didn't wake up
Feeling like this overnight
Overnight
I can't make it all change and go away
Overnight
But I'll try
To take some of the lonely away
If you'll only ask me to stay
Overnight
Overnight

Baby all I need is time

I'll do all I can to help
While you're mine

Baby you didn't wake up
Feeling like this overnight
No, you didn't overnight
Something happened overnight
Overnight
And I can't make it all change and go away
Overnight now baby
But I'll try
To take some of the lonely away
If you'll only ask me to stay
I'll take some of your lonely away
Overnight
