Your Eyes... Bright blue as the sky... Deeper than the sea...

Warm as the sun... And peaceful as a light breeze...

Your Eyes... Capture me in an instant, and leave me hypnotized...

And, I get lost... Every time... In Your Eyes...

And I get lost, I get lost, I get lost, I get lost,

I get lost, I get lost, I get lost, In Your Eyes...

Ever since that day... That you looked into my eyes...

I knew... I wanted to be yours forever...

Everyday and night... You're all I think about...

I know... That we belong together...

And here we are... In each others' arms...

And I'm praying that, we never have to part...

Your Eyes... Bright blue as the sky... Deeper than the sea...

Warm as the sun... And peaceful as a light breeze...

Your Eyes... Capture me in an instant, and leave me hypnotized...

And, I get lost... Every time... In Your Eyes...

And sometimes I'm so scared... I'll lose this perfect love...

My life... Is tied to yours forever...

And since I've found you... I don't know what I'd do...

If you... And I aren't together... No, no, no, no, no, no...

You give me life... In a way that I... will never be able to describe...

Your Eyes... Bright blue as the sky... Deeper than the sea...

Warm as the sun... And peaceful as a light breeze...

Your Eyes... Capture me in an instant, and leave me hypnotized...

And, I get lost... Every time... In Your Eyes...
