When I think I've had my share of ups and downs,
When I think I feel what's level to the ground,
When I think I've had just about enough,
that's when I ask the Lord how much is too much?

How much is too much for me to bear?
How long must I stay and hang in there?
When I think of all you've been through for me...
Lord, increase my faith. So, I'll let to wait
Until You speak and let me know when it's too much.

Now, the weekly task and toil are completely done.
Let your Word of comfort come.
With your day, comes freedom from a week so rough.
And I wonder, Lord, how much is too much?

How much is too much for me to bear?
How long must I stay and hang in there?
When I think of all you've been through for me...
Lord, increase my faith. So, I'll let to wait
Until You speak and let me know when it's too much.

Lord, increase my faith so I'll learn to wait.
Lord, increase my faith so, I'll learn to wait.
Lord, increase my faith so, I'll learn to wait.
(oh wait)
Lord, increase my faith so, I'll learn to wait.
(Oh yeah)
Lord, increase my faith so, I'll learn to wait.
(Job waited! Learn to wait)
