Looking down from up here
It looks like a thousand of the blackest graves
I haven't ever been so overcome with tears that I collapsed to my knees outside your room Your hospital room

And the flashbacks of what I remember play over and over Like a never ever ending horror
A never ending horror

A flash and I see you laying in the snow and I still don't even know who I am I can't seem to gain control of my own mind Someone else has taken over and I can't seem to come to my senses

What happened back there?
(what happened back there)
What happened back there?
(what happened back there)
What happened back there that had us
staring into the eyes of death?
The eyes of death

This is all a black hole in my mind and all I know is that I keep thinking about it and I keep on crying
I keep on crying

What happened back there?
What happened back there?
What happened back there that had us
staring into the eyes of death?

Remember all those games in kindergarten Please don't forget all those memories that we've shared
And Casey please don't leave me here all by myself

What happened back there?

(what happened back there)
What happened back there?
(what happened back there)
What happened back there that had us
staring into the eyes of death?
The eyes of death
