I'm a liar in the weekends, oh yeah
I'm so tired on the Monday mornings
So let me take a seat beside you
Let's talk about what you like
And what you don't like
How we could make it work

I'm coming down your alley
And I'm right by your door
I'm coming through your window
I'm flat on your floor

And she said "Why, why mister
are you never at home?"
Cause it looks like it's wrong
Well try to understand
How I think you're more
And it's a lot like business
When you're 10 years old

So pull me in and pull me out now, oh yeah
So let me go and let me light another
You think you've got me figured out now
Well, no
About what you like
And what you don't like
How I could make you go

I'm coming down your alley
And I'm right by your door
I'm coming through your window
I'm flat on your floor

And she said "Why, why mister
are you never at home?"
Cause it looks like it's wrong
Well try to understand
How I think you're more
And it's a lot like business

When you're 10 years old

Oh, no

Oh, no

Oh

I'm coming down your alley
And I'm right by your door
I'm coming through your window
I'm flat on your floor

are you never at home?"

It's a lot like business
It's a lot like business

Well now
Well now, now, now, now
