The path is opening clearly
We've all been here before
I can feel it all around me
It's time to ask for more

And it's nothing that we can't handle
And it's nothing that we can't do
So I ask you, brother, sister
Won't you just look at what's inside of you

We oughta rise in the morning
See what it brings
We oughta rise in the morning

Ain't no revolution
We'll get there through and through
So don't seek out retribution
'Cause it all comes back to me and you

We'll be crying in the daytime
We'll be crying all through the night
We'll be losing our minds slowly
If we don't start believing things will be alright

We oughta rise in the morning, see what it brings
We oughta rise in the morning, see what it brings
You keep moving on, you keep doing your thing
It's just a simple song, I hope you'll all join in

It's all alright, it's alright, it's alright, it's alright

The path is opening clearly
We've all been here before
I can feel it all around me
It's time to ask for more

We oughtta rise in the morning, see what it brings
We oughtta rise in the morning, see what it brings
You keep moving on you, keep doing your thing
It's just a simple song, I hope you'll all join in

It's alright, it's alright, it's alright, it's alright
