[verse 1:]

Lately, ain't got a clue what I goin through every time you walk away
I guess it's my fault cuz but no matter what u do I let you come back anyway
I blame it all on fantasy, mistaken lies for chemistry
Ain't gotta choice but to let you walk
Cuz nothin was what I thought

[chorus:]

And you'd have my back down for anythin
Stick with me thru the joy and the pain
How could u turn your back on us
I was so madly in love, I know it got rough
Never questioned what was left for us to save
None left in my heart for you to break
How could you turn your back on love

[verse 2:]

I was stuck, in love alone cuz u went and switched up the role
Run away with my heart, no I don't hear it beating somebody call 911
My world just stopped and I can't breathe

tryna act real tough but you know I'm hurting
I just gotta give it up all my lovin didn't mean much

[chorus:]

And you'd have my back down for anythin
Stick with me thru the joy and the pain
How could u turn your back on us
I was so madly in love, I know it got rough
Never questioned what was left for us to save
None left in my heart for you to break
How could you turn your back on love

[chorus:]

And you'd have my back down for anythin

Stick with me thru the joy and the pain
How could u turn your back on us
I was so madly in love, I know it got rough
Never questioned what was left for us to save
None left in my heart for you to break
How could you turn your back on love...
