This halloween - so unlike - any other
Her final words - don't be afraid Of the green - light - of the green - light - green light - baby - baby

On muddy ground - i'm lying drunk on her grave
Where i must wait - until she wakes
The soil splits - greenwood's ground will quake beneath me
And so shall take - into the earth
To the green light - to the green light - baby - baby - baby

The autumn air - thickly fills my lungs so sweetly Reminds me of - her smoky breath
With wine and this - bouquet of maple and oak leaves In death or life - we'll always be

I find myself drawn to her shadow domain
I find myself drawn to her shadow domain
I find myself drawn to her shadow domain

This moonlit night - late october's swirling fog gloom and as promised - my love did rise - from the green - light
From the green - light - green light

I find myself drawn to her shadow domain
I find myself drawn to her shadow domain
I find myself drawn to her shadow domain

Quiet - quiet - quiet - quiet
