This... HUH. OOH!
Took a chance and I
Never though that I
Would be here but all
Ohh, saw it in your eyes
Never realized
How'd you do me like this
You said I could change your life
And you said
In time it would be right and
The clocks changed
It's still on the same day
It's your lose
Do what you gotta do

Are you gonna sit here
Sit here and
Live in denial, denial
Of what we are
Or are you gonna be a man about it
Exposed while we out
That's why they call it denial
That's why you stay in denial
That's why I call it denial
Don't deny us now
Baby, in denial (ial, denial, ohh)
Denial, denial, denial

So when you came through
Let me love on you
That I felt the blue
And ohh
Cause I know that you
Comin home so you could conceal the truth
What happened to you laying
Up in my bed
Tellin me that you were nothin
Like them other men
But you don't beat the odds
Cause you ripped out my heart
And you threw it out the window

Are you gonna sit here
Sit here and
Live in denial, denial
Of what we are
Or are you gonna be a man about it
Exposed while we out
That's why they call it denial
That's why you stay in denial
That's why I call it denial

Don't deny us now
Baby, in denial (ial, denial, ohh)
Denial, denial, denial

There's no other word for it
Ohh, think it's best
That I just pack my feelings up and leave
I, I thought, that you
Would be real
Baby, this ain't even me
I can't pretend that this is somethin'
It ain't, ohh

Are you gonna sit here
Sit here and
Live in denial, denial
Of what we are
Or are you (or are you)
Gonna be a man about it (cause when we're together it another story)
Exposed while we out
That's why they call it denial
That's why you stay in denial
That's why I call it denial
Don't deny us now
Baby, in denial (ial, denial, ohh)
Denial, denial, denial

Are you gonna sit here
Sit here and
Live in denial, denial
Of what we are
Or are you (just tell me what we are)
Gonna be a man about it
Exposed while we out
That's why they call it denial
That's why you stay in denial
(You can love them other girls, play your little games, I don't really need a baby)
That's why I call it denial
Don't deny us now

Baby, in denial (ial, denial, ohh)
Denial, denial, denial
You can love you, denial
Denial
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
