[Verse 1:]

You already know
I gave you everthing that I have Now I gotta go
Cuz you took me for granted yea
I've done this before Im not walkin back through that door think this is what i deserve
But I aint playin these games no more

[Chorus:]

I've been tryin to find a way to trust you
I know in my heart im better off without you
I cant lie to myself I know its over knew that you would break my heart see boy I told ya what hurts me the most is all them second chances runnin back to you like you was gonna to change but I cant lie to myself i know its ova
Knew that you would break my heart see boy i told ya

[Verse 2:]

Feel like im goin insane
Im conflicted with the way I feel Somethin like love and hate
But a part of me wants you still
But in our history
Too many bad memories
Ive done my share of things to hurt you Theres no easy way
To say the end of the road is today

[Chorus:]

I've been tryin to find a way to trust you
I know in my heart im better off without you
I cant lie to myself I know its over
knew that you would break my heart see boy I told ya
But I think the most is all the second chances
runnin back to you like you was gonna to change but
I cant lie to myself i know its ova
Knew that you would break my heart see boy i told ya

[Hook:]

I know its hard to let it go
But I cant hold on to this no more And Im through wit yo love its just not enough you said you'd be different but boy, who ya kiddin?

[Chorus: x2]

I've been tryin to find a way to trust you
I know in my heart im better off without you
I cant lie to myself I know its over
knew that you would break my heart see boy I told ya
But I think the most is all the second chances
I cant lie to myself i know its ova
Knew that you would break my heart see boy i told ya
