Now you're gonna miss my love
Now you're gonna miss my love

Everybody makes mistakes
You made yours
I know I made mine
Puttin in all the work in
Hoping it would work out
You know that I tried
Stayed when everybody left
When you had nobody else
I was your gold mine
Don't know what else to do
Never coming back to you
Here's the bottom line

I've had enough
Boy you lost my trust
And now you're gonna miss my love
Wishing I could understand
Why you couldn't be a man
Now you're gonna miss my love
It's sad, you didn't treasure what you had
Now you're gonna miss my love
I had enough boy
You lost my trust
And now you're gonna miss my love

Thinkin about all the times I trusted you
You let me down
Gave you everything I have
Never thought you'd let me hit the ground
Baddest girl you'll ever meet
Let you get back your feet
Who's gonna be around?
I'm not trying to be so diddy
I'm the one who's sittin pretty
You're the one that's looking silly

Here's the bottom line (I've had enough)
Boy you lost my trust
And now you're gonna miss my love

Wishing I could understand
Why you couldn't be a man
Now you're gonna miss my love
It's sad, you didn't treasure what you had
Now you're gonna miss my love
I had enough boy
You lost my trust
And now you're gonna miss my love

My love, my love, my love
Now you're gonna miss my love
Here's the bottom line (I've had enough)
It's sad, you didn't treasure what you had
I had enough boy
You lost my trust

I've had enough
Boy you lost my trust
Wishing I could understand
It's sad, you didn't treasure what you had
I had enough boy
You lost my trust
