"Damn me Father, for I must sin..."Four centuries of this damned immortalityYet, I did not ask to be made. Why?
I will never again know your sun upon my faceOr the confront of a griefI am not alive and I am not deadThis is hell on earthHow could be possibly explain this ether width?When I can do nothing, but sit byAs my loves grow old and witherAnd every each of them, take a fragment of my heartAnd prolong this ether routerIt is October's perpetual agonyIt is the shadow realm(Chorus:)Father, please forgive himFor he knows not what to doWith every victim I pray, pray for my own deathAnd as much as I love the nightI curse the moon's eerie glowThis bloodlust that drags me to foreverThe toxic rays of dawn condemn me to limboI am encouraged to dwell in grey autumn twilights I am suspended in dusk(Repeat chorus)
