"The Conflict"

They push us further
Away from this
Far away from reason
This have got to end

They tire our hearts
Bending us as hard as they can
We will survive
As long as we stand together

This darkest moment
The light deprives the sun
Their fangs will shatter
In the end we are the ones who'll be left strong

They tire our hearts
Bending us as hard as they can
We will survive
As long as we stand together

Strike us with everything you've got Strip us of everything we hold
