"Will I Ever Learn"

So what's the point in all of this?
When you will never change
The days have past
The weather's changed
Should I be sorry? Could I be sorry?
I did it all for you
Hoping you would see
Your eyes are dull, your hands are clenched
Are we ready?
But you think about yourself
Only but yourself
But what about:
Un-lonely nights, romantic moments
The love
What about them
Throw it all away
You know me well
You know it's wrong
Then what is it you feel?
You hide behind those perfect smiles
It won't fool me because you already did
But you think about yourself
Only but yourself
But what about:
Un-lonely nights, romantic moments
The love
What about them
Throw it all away
The perfect dates, the sweetest kisses
What about them
Throw it all away
