It's amazing how the sun sets
But what did she dream?
And the trees they grow and grow,
but do they want to, do want to?

And what do you feel inside
When you carve your lovelines
Into the thick rind
You should have had, too?

Everywhere I go, everytime I turn
(I see you, I see you)
everything I do and everything I learn
(I see you everywhere I go)
Every vow I break and every bridge I burn "4u"
It's always 4U

A lotta questions seem to wait just for me;
Well, maybe the others didn't want them
And it seems to me, that you are not that Interested in what I think

Well, I am...

Everywhere I go, everytime I turn
(I see you, I see you)
Everything I do and everything I learn
(I see you everywhere I go)
every vow I break and every bridge I burn "4u"
It's always 4U

I see you everywhere I go
I see you everywhere I go
