Prove to me
I'm not gonna die alone
Put your arm round my collar bone
Open the door
Don't lie to me
If you're putting the dog to sleep
That fact you just couldn't keep Couldn't afford
Well prove to me
I'm not gonna die alone
Un-stitch that shit of soul
To close up the hole that saw through my skin
Well my trust in you
Is a dog with a broken leg
Attendance that taunts to bed
You'll let me back in
You said I can't prove to you
You're not gonna lie alone
Trust me to take you home
To clean up that blood
All over your paws
You can't keep running out
Kicking yourself off the bed
Kicking yourself in the hair
Because you're kicking me through
Put your trust in me
I'm not gonna die alone
Put your trust in me
I'm not gonna die alone
I dont think so
Put your trust in me
I'm not gonna die alone
Put your trust in me
I'm not gonna die alone
I don't think so
