I left you, oh, Lord have mercy
Without saving a dime
Five little hungry babies
All in one room, crying
I thought I was so hip (a big man)
A big man out in the world, yeah
I thought there was only
Two things in life to love for
A new car and big, fine girl
But I've had them both
Ooh, Lord, that's no joke
I had plenty of money in my pocket
Lord, when I used to always be broke
But I can't forget words my baby said
She said, what goes up
I know, one day has got to come down
Yeah, she said what goes around
Sure comes around, mm
What goes up
I know, one day has got to come down
Lord, have mercy

Now, bad luck has turned on me
I lost everything I had
No one has no sympathy for me
Ooh, they all glad to see me doing bad
I'm right back where I started
In my pocket, I don't have a dime
Girl, I know I failed that day
When I left you and the babies
In that one room, crying
A voice came to me
It came out of nowhere
It said, go home
Go on back home, boy
I know there's somewhere there
That she'll care
But I can't forget
The words my baby said
She said, what goes up
I know, one day has got to come down
Yeah, she said what goes around
Sure comes around, she said
What goes up
I know, one day has got to come down
Then she said, what goes around
Sure comes around, mmm

What goes up, you just watch and see

Don't it come back down

You got to reap just what you sow

What goes up, Lord, have mercy

Got to come back down

What goes around, sure comes around

What goes around, sure comes around
