Through the moonlit mist of night
Warriors in endless fight
Legions from a realm of darkness
Sent from beyond

Swords of power strike the shield
Their unholy battlefield
Flames of torment flowing like a
River from hell

Unseen forces take control
Weakened vessels lose their soul
Fallen angels demon spirits
Tempt the insane

Masters of a darkened place
Leave the world without a trace
Victims standing helplessly
Awaiting their fate

In the fortress of the stone
Secret of the sphinx unknown
Ancient gods and goddesses
The treasure within

Mysteries beyond the wall
Prophecies before the fall
Ancient myth reanimated
Until the end

Forces of the evil one
Battle till the war is done
Fight against the darkened souls
Until they are free

Ages to undo the crime
Evil running out of time
Flames engulf and leave behind
True spirits of light
