I almost don't remember the way it used to be
The way you used to whisper you belonged to me
You belonged to me

(Chorus)

I'm better off without you, except for when I sleep
I'm better off without you, besides the times I breathe
I keep telling myself, maybe one day I'll believe
That I'm better off without you, and I never think about you
I'm better off without you

I saw you on the sidewalk and I thought I'd caught your eye
And I wondered if you loved him as I watched you both walk by
As I watched you just walk by

(Chorus)

I'm better off without you, except for when I sleep
I'm better off without you, besides the times I breathe
I keep telling myself, maybe one day I'll believe

That I'm better off without you, and I never think about
you
I'm better off without you

Lookin' at a photograph of you, you're laughing
I'm standing by your side
I remember you were wearing my favorite perfume
How could you forget about the time you told me
I was your only joy
Now when you want to smile, what do you do
What do you do

(Chorus)

I'm better off without you, except for when I sleep
I'm better off without you, besides the times I breathe
I keep telling myself, maybe one day I'll believe
That I'm better off without you, and I never think about
you
I'm better off without you
