Too much, too fast maybe.
I don't know where my destiny's taking me.
So I'll go wherever it leads me.
Too high, too low baby.
I wanna know where my destiny's taking me.

So I'll go to make you believe me.
Cry, cry, when there's something to cry about.
Cry, cry baby but don't drown in the sadness.
It's madness.

Don't ask me to explain.
Don't take away the pain.
It's impossible to save me.
It's madness.

So easy to complain.
Nobody left to blame.
It's impossible to save me.

Too cheap, too scary.
Too creepy to marry.
Too serious too mysterious and way too deep.

Crack in the shield, feels so unreal.
No one to blame for losing the flame.
Crack in the shield. Lost in fields of sadness.
