Wow. Check This. Huh

We've lost our way
And don't know which way to turn
(Here we go again)
We put trust in great man
And still we get burnt
(Here we go again)

Why do we fall for the same old lines?
Why do we fall for it time after time?
We've lost our way inevitably

Kept in the dark
So dark that we can't see
Kept in the dark
I'm talking you and me

You've lost your pride
And don't know when it began
(Here we go again)
You sit in judgement
Over your fellow man
(Here we go again)

Why do you fall for the same old lines?
Why do you fall for it time after time?
You've lost your pride inevitably

Too scared to talk
Too scared to look and see
Too scared to walk
Too scared to run to me

Too scared to talk
Too scared to look and see
Too scared to walk
Too scared to run to me

We've gone too far
And don't know where it will end

(Here we go again)
We've eaten up nature
And we're gonna get burned
(Here we go again)

Why do we choose to leave no warning signs?
Why do we do it time after time?
We've gone to too far inevitably

Nowhere to run
As far as I can see
Nowhere to run
No end for you and me

Too scared to talk
Too scared to look and see
Too scared to walk
Too scared to run to me

Too scared to
Too scared to
Too scared to talk

Too scared to
Too scared to
Too scared to talk
