I could,
Engineer a smile make a train out of shopping carts, I,
Could work in a factory that manufactures auto parts
well,
I could be sleeping, I could be dead oh,
I could feel regretful I'll be grateful instead, I could,
Crawl up a mountain, or run on the spot, I could,
Hate what I have instead of loving what I got oh,
I could be everything or nothing at all its,
Clear now, it's always been my call.

So I'm,
Keeping it together maybe long enough to hold on,
I'm keeping it together maybe long enough to trust, I'm keeping it together maybe long enough to have faith,
I'm keeping it together maybe all day if I must.

Well I could,
Leap frog a mile raise some money for sick giraffes I,
Could invent a mood ring with a backpack mounted polygraph oh,
I could be jealous, or insecure I,
Could contaminate myself or work at staying pure I could,
Crawl up a willow tree or wallow and dread I could,
Make a permanent pen pal with the chatter in my head
oh,
I could be everyone or no one at all its,
Clear now, it's always been my call.

Should the sky fall, well I'll build a sky full,
Hotwire a clown car, eat me an apple.
I'm building a new wheel, instead of fixing a slow leak.
I'm building a new wheel, instead of fixing a slow leak.
We're building a new wheel, instead of fixing a slow
leak.
We're building a new wheel, instead of fixing a slow
leak.
But when I,
Put it all together now I'm strong enough to hold you,
I put it all together now I'm strong enough to trust.

I put it all together now I'm strong enough to feel love,
I put it all together maybe all day if I must.
Cuz there's nothing to be scared of,
Trust your intentions oh,
There's nothing to be scared of,
Trust your intentions oh,
Please don't be afraid to love,
Trust your intentions oh,
There's nothing to be scared of,
Trust your intentions oh

Should the sky fall, well I'll build a sky full,
Hotwire a clown car, or eat me an apple.
I thought I knew the true me,
But now I see right through me.
And everything I think to be, is a conceptual tendency.

That's why there's nothing to be scared of,
Trust your intentions oh,
There's nothing to be scared of,
Trust your intentions oh,
Please don't be afraid to love,
Trust your intentions oh,
There's nothing to be scared of.
