nd Jackson - If you had one thing to say to your wife about your love child, what would it be?
Well...
This one goes out to my baby's momma, and HER baby's momma,
and her baby mahama momma drama.
Let's do this...

I'm sorry Mrs. jackson
she was just a cheap thrill that's my love child, that I can't deny child from child support and alimony will bleed me dry I'm sorry mrs. jackson
I thought she was on the pill
I never meant to cheat on you dear wife so I retire from the public life her behind was fine to me its shaped nicely what started off soft, grew so hot it made me forget about wifey

a low-cut sweater plus the weather made her keep her chest out everytime we talk I look my mind would wander with her breast out
the late night chats, the late night (milk?) was cool, but then they got crazy I never thought ten months from now she'd actually have my baby and now that the story is leaking, it's me in the tabloids edition
I tried to pay her off, she said screw that I want the coalition
I thought if you found out I figured our marriage might die
I thought if I told (?) you'd forgive me, would keep hope alive but now that the story is out I really look like a dumb brother maybe next time I cheat on you, Jesse won't forget his rubber

I'm sorry mrs. jackson
child from ---(?)

I'm sorry mr. jackson, this mess is real your black *** is going out the door kick it with your skank ***funky whore I'm sorry Mr. jackson, let's make a deal call my lawyer see what he has to say but brotha get ready 'cause you're gonna have to pay

I can't believe you reverend you had the nerve to cheat on me after all the nasty things you had me doing between our sheets you're lucky I'm a christian woman, whew, and Lord I love my christ
'cause I was about ready to cut your little jackson with a
you embarrassed me in front of the world, our children, and whomever so reverend jackson I'm walking out on your life forever

Forever? forever ever, forever ever ever?!

I'm sorry Mrs. jackson
I'm through with you I'll do anything to keep you 'round messed up and now you are going down I'm sorry Mrs. jackson
I thought she was on the pill
