It Can't Be Right

[Naila:]

Who am I? [X5]

Yo who am I Naila Boss keep it tight I guess we got the Raghav on the mic gimme the light yes the flame true flame

I don't know you lot but long time

[Raghav:]

I Know I shouldn't but I got to see you tonight I pick you up around nine but I swear that this can't happen no more

'cuz when I'm looking in my baby's eyes I can't bare to tell her more lies I gotta be stronger now than I was before.

[Bridge]

But when you hold me girl it's so real I'm feeling things for u

I can't feel I know I shouldn't stay but girl I just can't leave

[Chorus]

[Raghav:]

This can't be right that it doesn't feel so wrong but when I'm all alone I'm thinking of you but I'm with her.
This can't be right that it's you that's on my mind but she's still in my life but you're the one that's standing by my side

[Raghav:]

I wanna let go but there's something that makes me hold on but baby this just can't go on and we're better off if

Nobody knows I never thought we'd have lasted so long so perfect but girl it's so wrong 'cuz I got somebody waiting at home.

[Repeat Bridge and Chorus]

[Naila:]

All I want is her plus you Boss you even if there is consequence like boo
Yea I'm gunna get mine you know I don't really care
But I gotta a soft spot for you girl like there hate to be the mistress
Ain't trying to be the wife got hubbie n kids so gotta keep it tight
Keep it on the hush on the low or whatever ain't no competition I can done n do better

[Raghav:]

Girl you why I can't, there's too much to lose yet it's you that I want but put yourself in her shoes.
It hurts to think if she only knew what would be on her mind would she be cool with you

[Repeat Chorus to fade]
