Yo, J. Charm. Uh.

(Chorus)

I will let you pass by,
Just so I can free my mind.
Now I want to get so high,
Just so I can free my mind.

(Verse 1)

And I can remember my first time, I was twelve,
I was a short, fat motherfucker lookin' like an elf,
I really needed some help.
And I found it rolled up next to me,
And I was told I'm about to embark on the finest green,
And so it seemed.
My first high, so fly, as I dreamed,
A youngin' whose yet to feen, or cream, an extreme for me,
I began to see all the things in my mind so clearly,
And time went so slow, I thought from A to Z,
I felt so free.
I realized I could control what I was doing,
And I don't care how everybody else is viewing.
'Cause as I'm construing,
People previewin' a hebrew and assumin' I can't imbue
to these youth and dudes who pursuin'
Similar lifestyles to proceed.
Who said you needed to be rich to smoke some weed?
Plant these seeds and concede to its every want and need.
So feed it to your mind and soon it'll make you see,
better believe that.

(Chorus)

I will let you pass by,
Just so I can free my mind.
Now I want to get so high,
Just so I can free my mind.

(Verse 2)

Now sit back, relax, baby kick off your shoes,

I rolled a J, let's just say it's for me and you.
Said fuck them other fools,
Cause they too cool.
But as long as I'm here rolling then they got nothing to rule,
It's true.
But shawty I'm here for a reason,
So forget all the teasin',
Cause I'm hard feenin' for a reason,
Hopin' my chances increasin'.
And I'm not ceasin' till I'm told I'm committing treason,
But it's hard when your soul is freezin', all my homies
agreein',
I'm just not seeing.
Why you making this harder than it has to be?
And why you acting like I'm nothing but a bastard 'G'?
I'm fly, bitch, and I just wanna have you see,
That there's more to me than getting plastered and smoking trees.
So please see the message within these words,
That this man hard feening is spittin downwards,
With the message confessing that you are not what it's worth.
Instead of fighting I'ma light up and grab my money's worth.

(Chorus)

I will let you pass by,
Just so I can free my mind.
Now I want to get so high,
Just so I can free my mind.
