And you can run for the first time since you were a child in His arms the air has never been so sweet and some they won't believe it until they all can see it but some of us are lucky in the end and all in all I think I'm doing fine picking up what I left behind

and there it goes I think I lost myself again and you can scream for the last time at least while you are here in the arms of all the pain that struck you to pretend

and some they won't believe it until they all can see it but some of us are lucky in the end I said again my friend

and all in all I think I'm doing fine picking up what I left

Oh no, it just goes to show We don't know what we are capable of doing
and some they won't believe it until they all can see it but some of us, a few of us, all of us or none of us, and some of us, as we must and we all lust for all in all I think I'm doing fine picking up what I left behind

and there it goes I think I lost myself again
