(You're my dirty little secret)
My dirty little secret

You stay away, gonna get in trouble
If you keep coming 'round looking like you do
Each day I pray I'll forget about ya
Even that makes me think about you too

Don't know how you done it but you done me in
I haven't told a soul, even my best friend
If anyone finds out
Oh, the trouble we'll be in

You're my dirty little secret
I won't tell if you don't tell
Don't know how much longer I can keep it
This is like nothing that I've ever felt
Don't know what I'm doing but it sure feels good
If you're gonna tell it, well I wish you would I'm holding on to something and I don't think I can keep
it
My dirty little secret

I know that it's part of the excitement
Keeping it from everybody that we know
One slip and it's running like a wildfire
I'm about ready to explode

Everyday I wanna shout it from the roof
But that would ruin everything and that won't do
And every chance I get
I find a way to be with you

You're my dirty little secret
I won't tell if you don't tell
Don't know how much longer I can keep it
This is like nothing that I've ever felt
Don't know what I'm doing but it sure feels good
If you're gonna tell it, well I wish you would I'm holding on to something and I don't think I can keep
it

My dirty little secret

You're my dirty little secret
I won't tell if you don't tell
Don't know how much longer I can keep it
This is like nothing that I've ever felt
Don't know what I'm doing but it sure feels good
If you're gonna tell it, well I wish you would I'm holding on to something and I don't think I can keep

You're my dirty little secret
I won't tell if you don't tell
Don't know how much longer I can keep it
This is like nothing that I've ever felt
Don't know what I'm doing but it sure feels good
If you're gonna tell it, well I wish you would I'm holding on to something and I don't think I can keep
it

My dirty little secret
I don't think I can keep it
No, I don't think I can keep it
Oh my dirty, no, dirty little secret
Ooh, my dirty little secret
Ooh, my dirty little secret
